It has been a while since NHMC have been able to run an autotest but there has been so much enthusiasm for this event, we appreciate all the support and help we have received to get it off the line. I look forward to your feedback after the event so we can improve further.

As it will be nearly Halloween, we have arranged some treats for the day. Should you wish to, please dress for the occasion or decorate your cars in some way. Marshals have a head start at dressing like pumpkins in our tabards!

We hope you have an enjoyable day.

Many thanks
